Pipeline Application Process Overview

Document Number: TRA-O1
» Intended User: Pipeline Industry Applicants and AER Employees

Overview

This document provides a graphical overview of the new application process windows in OneStop.
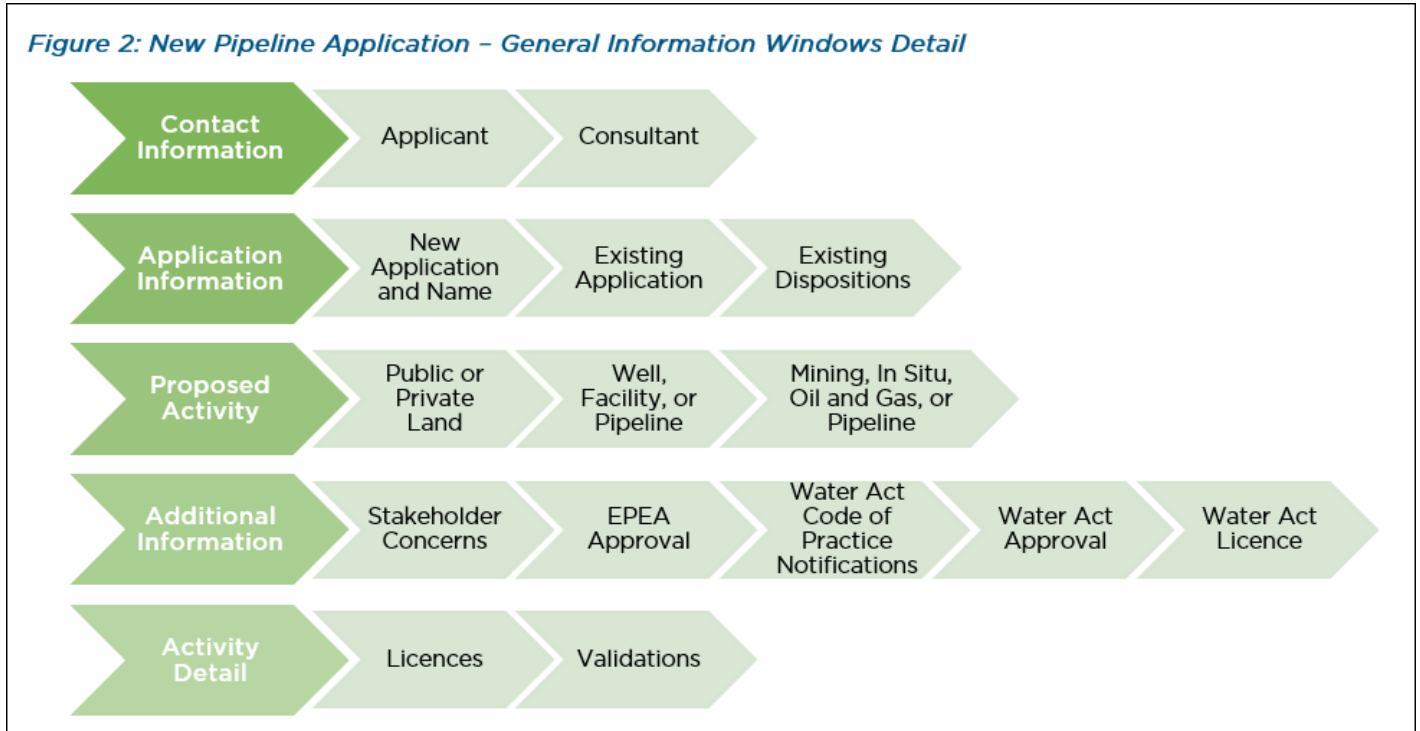

New Pipeline Application Process Overview

Figure 1 illustrates the complete process for submitting a new construction application to the AER.

Figure 1: OneStop Pipeline Application Process – New Construction

Subsequent figures outline further detail for each process step show above.

General Information Windows Detail

Figure 2 outlines the five windows of the General Information section. These windows show how to create and submit basic data to support an application.

Figure 2: New Pipeline Application – General Information Windows Detail

Licensing Windows Detail

Figure 3 illustrates the detail of the Licensing windows, which determine the order in which technical pipeline information is entered in OneStop.

Figure 3: New Pipeline Application – Licensing Windows Detail

Confirmation Windows Detail

Figure 4 outlines the final step in the process: the Confirmation windows, where risk rules are applied to the application, and validations are completed.

Figure 4: New Pipeline Application – Confirmation Windows Detail